Hartley Open Doubles Competition 21st October 2018. A glorious late summer's day with the sun shining on the 32 teams made up from players that had travelled from far and wide to play in this competition. A good sprinkling of players from Kent and surrounding Regions including some who travelled from Wales and Bury St. Edmunds. The competition had the ideal 32 teams taking part that played in preliminary Leagues in the morning followed by four Groups based on ability for the afternoon Leagues...Gold Group playing for £90 and £40— Silver Group playing for £50 and £30— Bronze Group playing for £40 and £20— and the Tin Group playing for £30 and £10. All entry fees being returned as total £310 prize money (juniors free entry). The final deciding game of the Gold group was between the team of GEOFF BOOTH and DEAN ASHBY who beat the team of MATT HARRIGAN and BARRY WING in a pretty one sided affair. The competition was organised by Colin Senneck and the on piste catering and bar-b-que team comprised, Shirley Freear, Gill Pearson, Lynn Lucas and Ron Yates.

The winners of the Silver Group was the team of Steve Brown and Jurgen Vedes— the winners of the Bronze Group were Mike and Debbie Capelin— and the winners of the Tin Group were Samir Hamidi and Hakim Dahmani.
